

The Wedding of Lauren Such and Zach Miller

After Lauren's cousin introduced her to Zach in 2011 at a party, Lauren's intuition told her he was the perfect one for her. They hung out endlessly for weeks, making their relationship "official" a short time later. Just weeks ago, the lovely couple tied the knot at The Royal Manor in Garfield.

The Proposal (As told by Lauren)

On a beautiful day in September of 2014, Zach's father was visiting town and we wanted to get everyone together for dinner in Red Bank. We arrived early, little did I know it was on purpose, and we decided to take a walk down by the water. While looking out over the marina, Zach got down on one knee and popped the question. I said yes! Everyone in the park was applauding. Zach had one of his friends disguised so he could be taking photos the whole time without me knowing. Afterwards, we had that family dinner together. I didn't know it was a surprise celebration all along!
